1. Voter registration forms are gold. Treat them like it.

2. Don’t stand behind the table. Move around, be assertive and friendly and let everyone see how much you are enjoying this!

3. Ask everyone to register . . . not just the people that look like you or the people that approach you.

4. Make sure you have two clipboards on you. While someone is filling out a form, start engaging your next registrant.

5. Don’t waste time convincing the inconvincible. If you get the feeling someone is just talking to be heard and won’t be talked into registering, move on.

6. Check the form twice. Make sure the registrant has signed their name in the appropriate spot and has not mixed up their birth date and the current date.

7. There is a role for everyone. If someone wants to help, let them help. Each person has something to contribute.

8. “Already registered” is just an excuse. Make sure they are registered at their current address – ask them if they have moved since last registering – and encourage them to register at their school address.

9. Don’t stand behind the table.
